Mr. D. C. Blair
Montour Falls
N. Y.

Fri. March 6.

Dear Pop, I tell you, I wait for your daily news anxiously. How is that mother of mine now?
Better I hope. Don't let her go & get any stib joints or wooden legs before she comes out here to W. I'm ashamed of myself for not having written, but I've been so busy haven't known whether I were standing up or sitting down. The Tree Day costumes have come & Blanche & I spent all last evening getting them sorted out. This P.M.
I spent dividing them into groups. Tonight was a meeting of my sewing committee & after they had gone I went over to get Lucia ready for the night. She is coming down with gripe & feels pretty bad. Your old storm has just reached Mass. so at present we are boxed up (more or less) in snow. I'll write in detail Sun. & Express my delight & interest at the arrival of my laundry run but then I'm having a good time with it.

Have 'em all, all.
